

Andromeda's curriculum (Lili) – May/June 2026

Date	Intent (what we are planning to teach)	Impact (what we want from the activity) Learnt outcomes
Week commencing 18 th May 2026	To express their feelings and consider the feelings of others	To build constructive and respectful relationships
Week commencing: 25 th May 2026		To identify their own feelings, socially and emotionally
Week commencing: 1 st June 2026		To regulate their own emotions
Week commencing: 8 th June 2026		To understand gradually how others might be feeling Planned learning opportunities – ideas: Stories relating to the intent throughout the week. Songs relating to the intent throughout the week. Sensory activities – making playdough faces, drawing emotion faces in the sand Outings – talking about how they feel when visiting outdoor places like the playground or nursery garden Mark-making – drawing emotion faces, painting, chalk, coloured pens Group time and discussions throughout the week to develop social communication skills Role-play and small world play activities, developing social skills and modelling emotions Safeguarding: Settling – Encouraging the children to develop friendship and communication through free play and discussion. Mealtimes – Positive interactions during mealtimes to develop social skills and understanding of mealtime expectations. Toileting – Supporting the children’s confidence and independence in toileting.		